Palmer and Cara,

As an FYI, BBNC's President and CEO Jason Metrokin sent a personalized version of the attached letter to each of the Alaska Native Corporations that PLP had listed on its website. While this only just went out a couple of days ago, Jason already has received positive feedback from one of the ANCs, which said that their only concern was with gaining more time to review the assessment and that nothing more should be read into the letter. They also said they have asked PLP to remove from its website the link to their letter.

Best,
Peter
